Preface

In The Name Of Allah, The Most High, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful. All Praise is due to Allah The Most High, The Creator, The Provider. He has no Partners, and is in no need of any. He is Alone; He made the Heavens and the Earth. He knows what was before time, what is present and what is after. He shows the straight path to whosoever He wishes, and whoever He chooses to bless. He makes them the best among the best. O Allah, send salutations on our Prophet (May Allah bless him and grant him peace), who is the last and final Messenger. After him there will be no Prophets to come until the Day of Judgement.

What is the Sunnah?

Linguistically, Sunnah is an Arabic word which means a path or a way. However, Islaamically, it is a primary source of law taken from the sayings, actions and approvals of the Prophet Muhammad(peace be upon him). As Muslims we believe that the law Prophet Muhammad(peace be upon him) came with, is a divine revelation from our Creator, Allaah. However many people believe that the Qur’aan is the only form of divine revelation, as it is the literal word of Allaah; This view is incorrect as it contradicts the Qur’aan itself. About the Prophet Muhammad(peace be upon him), Allaah says: “Your companion (Muhammad) is neither astray nor being misled. Nor does he speak of his own desire. It is (only) the revelation with which he is inspired” (Surah An-Najm 53:2-4).

Thus as Muslims, we are required to believe that the Qur’aan and Sunnah go hand in hand together as our sources of legislated law. Both are revelation from almighty Allaah, the most High. The Qur’aan is composed of the actual words of almighty Allaah, whereas the Sunnah is expressed through the words, actions and approvals of the Prophet Muhammad(peace be upon him). Another difference is that the Qur’aan is recited formally in the prayers whereas the Sunnah is not.

About narrator:
The Prophet (ﷺ) said: Do not say: "What Allah wills and so and so wills," but say: "What Allah wills and afterwards so and so wills.

Huzaifah bin Yaman (Radiallahu anhu), may Allah be pleased with him, was though born in Makkah, had the unique distinction of embracing Islam much ahead of others, almost immediately after the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) attaining prophethood in Makkah. In fact he was a Makkan as his father Yaman belonged to Makkah's tribe of Abas.

But it so happened that Yaman murdered someone among his clansmen and was forced to take refuge in Madinah. Huzaifah (Radiallahu anhu) grew up in Madinah but since the family kept active contact with Makkah, came to know of the message of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) very early in his childhood. Even as the light of Islam began to illuminate the Arabian peninsula, Huzaifah (Radiallahu anhu) developed a passionate desire to see the holy Prophet (peace be upon him). He joined a delegation of 10 people of Madinah who traveled to Makkah, called upon the Prophet (peace be upon him) and embraced Islam at a very young age.
However, he was in dilemma as to call himself an Ansar or a Muhajir. When he wanted the Prophet (peace be upon him) to put him in a certain category, he was told to adopt whatever title he liked. He chose to be Ansar. He participated in all the battles except the Badar. The holy Prophet (peace be upon him) was impressed with keen intelligence, decision-making in critical situation, and capacity to keep secrets possessed by Huzaifah (Radiallahu anhu). He employed him for all such assignments that required these qualities. He had once confided into him and told him the names of the hypocrites who were damaging the cause of Islam by being the members of the society. He wanted them to keep watch over the activities of hypocrites. This continued even during the time of the caliphate. Second caliph Umar while leading funeral prayers would often ask if Huzaifah (Radiallahu anhu) was present in the congregation and would excuse himself from leading the prayer if Huzaifah (Radiallahu anhu) was not present. At the battle of Trench (Khandaq), the Prophet deputed him to make forays into the enemy camp in a disguise and gather intelligence about their morale even as the siege of Madinah by the Quraish was proving too long. A prayer chanted by the Prophet at that moment removed fear from his heart and stopped shivering that ran through his body due to cold season. Prophet (peace be upon him) instructed him to merely gather intelligence and avoid any kind of offensive action. He got into a camp and befriended the men of the opponent camp.
It was to be addressed by Chieftain Abu Sufiyan. Abu Sufiyan began by advising the people to check who was sitting by their side lest someone carried the news to the opposing camp. Huzaifah (Radiallahu anhu) got worried for a moment. But then he immediately began to ask the names of all those around him even before they could check his antecedents. Abu Sufiyan began to address them: ‘O people of Quraish, the hailstorm has uprooted our camps, upturned our cooking vessels, killed our animals. Banu Quraizah (a tribe of Jews) has left our company. It is no longer in our interest to be waiting here for a military engagement.’ He then mounted his horse and rode away towards Makkah. While doing so, Abu Sufiyan came within the attacking range of Huzaifah(Radiallahu anhu), but the latter remembered the Prophet’s (peace be upon him) advice and resisted his temptation. This intelligence input considerably helped the Prophet (peace be upon him) is surmising the morale of the enemy and plan his strategy. Huzaifa(Radiallahu anhu) was part of Muslim army which conquered important forts at Hamadan, Ray and Nahavand. Once Umar(Radiallahu anhu) asked him to point out if there was any hypocrite among his office bearers. He said there is one but refused to identify the person. But he found out after some time that Umar (Radiallahu anhu) had dismissed him. When he(Radiallahu anhu) fell terminally ill prior to his death, he instructed the holy companions who had gathered around him not to put him in an expensive burial garments. When the death finally came knocking at his door he (Radiallahu anhu) said: ‘O my Lord, You know I always accorded precedence to poverty over affluence, humility over boastfulness and akhira (the day of judgement) over duniya (worldly life).’
Some of the benefits of this Hadith
1. One should save his correct belief from all kind of influences of polytheism
2. One can understand from this hadith that there is no interference of others in Allah’s names, attributes, commands and deeds. He is the one and self-sufficient master.
3. One should not utter (use) any word which goes against oneness of god.
A’ishah (May Allah be pleased with her) reported:
The Prophet (ﷺ) used to supplicate (in these words): "Allahumma inni audhu bika min sharri ma ‘amiltu, wa min sharri ma lam a’mal (O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the evil of that which I have done and the evil of that which I have not done)."

About narrator:
Aisha (Radiallahu anha) was the wife of our beloved Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) and the daughter of Abu Bakr (Radiallahu anhu), the first caliph of Islam. As the wife of our Prophet (peace be upon him), Aisha (Radiallahu anha) is known as "ummul-muminun," meaning “the mother of the believers” and as the daughter of Abu Bakr (Radiallahu anha), she is known by the title of "as-Siddiqa" meaning “the devoted”. She (Radiallahu anha) is remembered for her intelligence, intuition, her knowledge of Hadith and principles of religion, secrets of Islamic knowledge, Arabic literature, piety and Islamic Fiqh. She became a great Madani (person of Madina) scholar and knew several thousand Ahadith by heart. Prophet (peace be upon him) himself used to teach her and answer her questions. She used to also teach other women. A great Scholar, Imam Zahri (radi Allahu anhu), has said about her: Aisha (radi Allahu anha's) knowledge will surpass the knowledge of all the males and Mothers of the Faithful put together."

Aisha (Radiallahu anha) was educated in early childhood by her father, Abu Bakr (Radiallahu anha), the first caliph of Islam. Her marriage to our Prophet (peace be upon him) led to further moral and intellectual growth, maturity and depth. Our mother Aisha (Radiallahu anha) became a Muslim at an early age, and with her modesty, determination, generosity and a character devoid of arrogance and refusal to speak badly of anyone she was a wise role model for all Muslims. Because of her sincere faith and purity, she was able to act in line with Allah’s approval, that which is really essential.

Hadiths Addressed to our Mother Aisha (Radiallahu anha).

Some of the hadiths addressed to our mother Aisha (Radiallahu anhu) and quoted in the Ramuz al-Ahadith read as follows:

"O Aisha, Allah is He Who treats His servants with blessings. He loves gentle behavior in all matters."
"O Aisha, gentleness and patience beautify and adorn wherever they are found and reduce the beauty of whatever they are lifted from."

"O Aisha, backbiting is relating a Muslim’s defect behind his back. But if the flaw in question does not exist in him, then you have slandered our Muslim brother. And slander is a worse sin than backbiting."

Young people from the time of the devout Muslims who had spoken with the Prophet Muhammad’s (peace be upon him) Companions and learned from them, came to our mother Aisha (Radiallahu anha) and asked her about the moral values of Rasulullah (peace be upon him). She said: "His moral values were those of the Qur’an. He approved of that which the Holy Qur’an approves of. And he disapproved of and avoided what the Qur’an disapproves of."

"When prophet (peace be upon him) had to choose between two things, he would take the easier, so long as it was not sinful. But when it was sinful, he avoided it more than anyone else. Prophet (peace be upon him) never sought revenge for his own personal desire."

The Messenger of Allah (سَلَّمَ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) said: By his good character a believer will attain the degree of one who prays during the night and fasts during the day.

Anas(Radiallahu anhu) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said:
"Al-Fuhsh is not present in anything but it mars it, and Al-Haya' is not present in anything but it beautifies it."

About narrator:
Anas bin Maalik ibn Nadar al-Khazraji Al-Ansari(Radiallahu anhu) He was an Ansar of the Banu Khazraj
Anas ibn Malik(Radiallahu anhu) was born 10 years before the Hijrah of Prophet Muhammad(peace be upon him) to the Bani Khazraj tribe of Yathrib. He (Radiallahu anhu) was present in Madinah during Muhammad's(peace be upon him) time there and afterwards. Anas ibn Malik (Radiallahu anhu) was the longest lived of the Companions of the Prophet(peace be upon him), having died 93 years after the Hijrah. He (Allah's blessings be on him) was born to Umm Sulaim (of the Banu Najjar) and Malik ibn Naḍr. After the father of Anas(Allah's blessings be on him) died a non-Muslim, Anas ibn Malik(Allah's blessings be on him) mother Umm Sulaim (Radiallahu anha) remarried Abu Talha ibn Thabit(Allah's blessings be on him) and he gained a half-brother, Abdullah ibn Abu Talha.
He had been presented to Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) as a servant by his(Radiallahu anhu) mother at an early age. Prophet (peace be upon him) accepted the offer. This was the beginning of a 10-year association of Anas with the Noble Prophet (peace be upon him). At that time, Anas was only 10 or 12 years of age. He accompanied the Prophet (peace be upon him) to the last day of his blessed life.
Anas reported about nice behavior of Prophet (peace be upon him)
I served the Prophet (peace be upon him) at home and on journeys. By Allah, he never said to me for anything which I did: Why have you done this like this? Or for anything which I did not do: Why have you not done this like this? (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)
Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) was so kind to Anas and his family. In fact, he used to visit Anas's mother and aunt and have a meal with them.

Anas's mother once asked the Prophet (peace be upon him) to pray for Anas, a request which he fulfilled, praying to Almighty Allah "to give him wealth and children and to bestow His blessings upon him." The mother was overjoyed with the Prophet's (peace be upon him) supplication, realizing that her son would — Allah willing — have a good future. It was rooted in her awareness that the Prophet's (peace be upon him) prayer was always to be answered. And it was: Anas later acquired wealth, and he saw scores of his children and grandchildren.
After Prophet Muhammad's (peace be upon him) death, he participated in the wars of conquest and went to Damascus and later settled in Basra.
Anas bin Malik (Radiallahu anhu) was the last of the Companions of the Prophet (peace be upon him) to die at al-Basrah in 93 AH aged 103. He was one of the longest living companions of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Narrated Abu Ayyub al-Ansari (Radiallahu anhu):

When the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) ate or drank, he said: "Praise be to Allah Who has given food and drink and made it easy to swallow, and provided an exit for it.

(sunan abu dawud, hadith no: 3851, Shaik Nasiruddin Albani approved this hadith as sahih)

About narrator:

Abu Ayyub al-Ansari(Radiallahu anhu)
Khalid ibn Zayd ibn Kulayb from the Banu Najjar was a great and close companion of the Prophet(peace be upon him). He was known as Abu Ayyub (the father of Ayyub) and enjoyed a privilege which many of the Ansar in Madinah hoped they would have.

When the Prophet(peace be upon him), peace and blessings of God be on him, reached Madinah after his hijrah from Makkah, he was greeted with great enthusiasm by the Ansar of Madinah. Their hearts went out to him and their eyes followed him with devotion and love. They wanted to give him the most generous reception anyone could be given.

The Prophet(peace be upon him) first stopped at Quba on the outskirts of Madinah and stayed there for some days. The first thing he did was to build a mosque which is described in the Quran as the "mosque built on the foundation of piety (taqwa)". (Surah At-Tawbah 9: 108).
The Prophet (peace be upon him) entered Madinah on his camel. The chieftains of the city stood along his path, each one wishing to have the honor of the Prophet (peace be upon him) alighting and staying at his house. One after the other stood in the camel's way entreatting, "Stay with us, O Rasulullah." "Leave the camel," the Prophet (peace be upon him) would say. "It is under command."
The camel continued walking, closely followed by the eyes and hearts of the people of Yathrib. When it went past a house, its owner would feel sad and dejected and hope would rise in the hearts of others still on the route. Finally that camel stopped before the house of Abu Ayyub Ansari (Radiallahu anhu) his heart was filled with happiness. He went out to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and greeted him with great enthusiasm. He took the Prophet's baggage in his arms and felt as if he was carrying the most precious treasure in the world.
The Prophet (peace be upon him) stayed in Abu Ayyub's house for almost seven months until his mosque was completed on the open space where his camel had stopped. He moved to the roots which were built around the mosque for himself and his family. He thus became a neighbor of Abu Ayyub (Allah's blessings be on him). What a noble neighbor to have had!
Abu Ayyub (Allah's blessings be on him) continued to love the Prophet (peace be upon him) with all his heart and the Prophet (peace be upon him) also loved him dearly. There was no formality between them. The Prophet (peace be upon him) continued to regard Abu Ayyub's (Allah's blessings be on him) house as his own. The following anecdote tells a great deal about the relationship between them.
He also had a distinguished military career. Much of his time was spent as a warrior until it was said of him, "He did not stay away from any battle the Muslims fought from the time of the Prophet (peace be upon him) to the time of Muawiyah (Allah's blessings be on him) unless he was engaged at the same time in another."

The last campaign he took part in was the one prepared by Muawiyah (Allah's blessings be on him) and led by his son Yazid (Radiallahu anhu) against Constantinople. Abu Ayyub (Allah's blessings be on him) at that time was a very old man, almost eighty years old. But that did not prevent him from joining the army and crossing the seas as a ghazi in the path of God. After only a short time engaged in the battle, Abu Ayyub (Radiallahu anhu) fell ill and had to withdraw from fighting. Yazid (Allah's blessings be on him) came to him and asked:

"Do you need anything, Abu Ayyub (Allah's blessings be on him)?" "Convey my salaams to the Muslim armies and say to them: "Abu Ayyub (Allah's blessings be on him) urges you to penetrate deeply into the territory of the enemy as far as you can go, that you should carry him with you and that you should bury him under your feet at the walls of Constantinople." Then he breathed his last.

The Muslim army fulfilled the desire of the companion of the Messenger of God. They pushed back the enemy's forces in attack after attack until they reached the walls of Constantinople. There they buried him (Allah's blessings be on him).

Some of the benefits of this hadith:
1. Halal and healthy food also a great boon and blessing of almighty Allah, it is every Muslim's responsibility to thank his lord on this great blessing.
2. To notice and feel the blessings of Almighty Allah also a worship.
Abu Dharr (Radiallahu anhu) reported that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) was asked as to which words were the best. He said:
"Those for which Allah made a choice for His Angels and His servants (and the words are): "Hallowed be Allah and praise is due to Him.""

(Some of the benefits of this Hadith)
1. Glory and the greatness of almighty Allah is shown in this remembrance (subhanallaahi wabi hamdihi).
2. In remembrance of almighty Allah only our mind gets peace and great satisfaction.
3. It is better to use these specific words of this supplication in remembrance of Allah.

(sahih muslim, hadith no: 84-(2731),)
On the authority of the mother of the faithful, Aisha (Radiallahu anha), who said:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, “He who innovates something in this matter of ours (i.e., Islam) that is not of it will have it rejected (by Allah).” [Bukhari & Muslim] In another version in Muslim it reads: “He who does an act which we have not commanded, will have it rejected (by Allah).”

Some of the benefits of this Hadith:
1. New innovations in Islam leads to astray, Islam never permits such new innovations in which have no proofs from Allah and his prophet (peace be upon him) to do.
2. Everyone should be perfect on Quran and Hadith and practice only on proved things from almighty Allah and prophet (peace be upon him).
3. Innovation of un-Islamic things always leads to ruin.
12 - عن أنس، قال: كَانَ أَكْثَرُ دُعَاءِ النَّبِيِّ صلى الله عليه وسلم "اللهِمَّ رَبِّنَا آيَتَا في الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَة، وَفي الْآخِرَةِ حَسَنَة، وَقَنَعْنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ".

Narrated Anas (Radiallahu anhu):

The most frequent invocation of The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was: "O Allah! Give to us in the world that which is good and in the Hereafter that which is good, and save us from the torment of the Fire." (2.201)

Some of the benefits of this hadith:

1. Islam gives peace and blessings in this world and hereafter, good characteristic and wise people only get benefits of it.
2. This supplication applies on every blessing; this supplication is very useful to protect our-selves from prohibited and doubtful things too.
Abu Huraira (Radiallahu anhu) reported that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said:

The parts of land dearest to Allah are its mosques, and the parts most hateful to Allah are markets.

About narrator:

Abu huraira (Allah's blessings be on him) is affiliated with the Daws branch of Azd tribe, yet his date of birth is not known. During the period of Ignorance, his name was recorded in various forms as Abd Shams, Abd Amr, Sukain, Amr b. Abd Ghanm. The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) changed his name to Abdurrahman or Abdullah. The most common account as to how he acquired the name "Abu Hurairah" (Radiallahu anhu) was that he would put kittens in his shirttail gown, and play with them when he was pasturing the sheep.

It is understood that his name was not given to him by the Prophet, from the fact that he called him "Abu Hurairah" (Allah's blessings be on him) when they first met. It is also narrated that Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) did not like being called in this way and often wanted to be called Abu Hir, a name attributed to him by Prophet Muhammad. The records on having grown up as an orphan reveals that he lost his father at an early age. It is also known that he was a member of a well-known family both on the part of his father and mother.
Sources claim that Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) embraced Islam at the beginning of the 7th year and set on a journey to Medina with sixty or seventy families from his tribe in order to see the Prophet (peace be upon him). They also support the view that he was not a Muslim beforehand and came to Medina to accept Islam.

Since the day Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) arrived in Medina, he (Allah's blessings be on him) completely devoted himself to Islam and never pursued a worldly desire during the period he accompanied the Prophet (peace be upon him). At times when people participating in battles requested more shares of the booties, Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) asked him whether he would want the same thing. Instead, Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) requested him to teach some of the lessons taught him by almighty Allah. To make up for the years he lost before he converted to Islam, he would not leave Suffa in the Prophet’s Mosque even when he was about to faint due to his hunger.

Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) partially took part in the conquest of Khaybar and in the subsequent battles among the tribes. He was one of those people in Umrat al-Qaza who were assigned to take Prophet’s (peace be upon him) sacrificial animals to Mecca. He also served in special teams formed against the enemies by Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Caliph Umar (Radiallahu anhu) sent Qudama. Maz‘ûn to Bahrain as the offering and tax authority, whereas he assigned Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) with the duty of leading the congregational prayers. Eventually he assigned him as the Governor of Bahrain twice where he had previously served. After Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) left his position as a governor and returned to Medina.
Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) left Medina in the final years of his life as more foreigners arrived and the number of companions decreased and he retreated to his house nearby in Zulhuleyfe or Akik. Sometime before his death, he became sick, he died at the age of seventy eight. His funeral was brought to Medina. After the governor of Medina performed Abu Hurairah's (Allah's blessings be on him) funeral salah attended by companions like Abdullah bin Omar (Allah's blessings be on him) and Abu Said al-Hudri (Allah's blessings be on him), he was buried in Jannatu'l Baqi.

Prophet (peace be upon him) said, "When a person dies, the opportunity of gaining more reward ends with his death except for three things: A continuous charity; knowledge by which people derive benefit and a pious son who prays to Allah for the deceased." (Muslim).

Abu Huraira (Allah's blessings be on him) stands high on this position.

He was a simple man from Yemen but through his enormous efforts rose to one of the highest positions in Islamic history. He says: "I grew up an orphan. I emigrated as a poor person.

Abd Al-Rahman ibn Sakhr Al-Azdi, well known as Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) was from Banu Daws tribe. He was born 19 years before Hijrah, at Jabour village in Baha. His father's name was Sakhr and mothers as Maimuna. He came to Madinah in 7AH when the Prophet (peace be upon him) had gone on Khyber campaign. Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) felt that he was very late in joining the Prophet's (peace be upon him) company so he stayed at the Prophet's (peace be upon him) Mosque and devoted himself to the service of the Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) for three years.
The main purpose of his stay was to learn the Qur'an and Hadith from the Prophet (peace be upon him). Subsequently, he noted 5,374 Hadiths from the Prophet (peace be upon him) in about 1,000 days. A total of 1,034 Hadiths have been attested by Imam Bukhari and included in his Jame Al Sahih. Imam Muslim also included 391 Hadiths in his book from Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him).

His father died when he was a child. His mother was a nonbeliever. Abu Hurairah invited her to Islam but one day she repulsed him with bad words. He came weeping to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and asked him to pray for her. The Prophet (peace be upon him) prayed for her and when Abu Hurairah returned home he found his mother declaring she had embraced Islam.

Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) was very keen to seek knowledge. He was not literate and so all his knowledge depended on oral transmission and memorization. Once he told the Prophet (peace be upon him): "I hear many Hadiths from you but I forget them." The Prophet said, "Spread your covering sheet." Abu Hurairah spread the sheet and the Prophet (peace be upon him) moved both his hands (as if scooping something) and emptied them in the sheet and said, "Wrap it." Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) wrapped it around his body, and since then he never forgot a single Hadith. This was a miracle. And he retained more than 5,000 Hadiths word for word, throughout his life.

Once Marwaan Ibn Al-Hakam (Radiallahu anhu) wanted to examine Abu Hurairah's (Radiallahu anhu) memorizing ability. He invited him to sit with him and asked him to narrate Hadiths while a scribe sat behind a screen and was told to write whatever Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) said. After a year, Marwaan invited Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) again and asked him to narrate the same Hadiths the scribe had written. It was confirmed that Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) had not forgotten a single word!
Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) is a role model for young generation. "He was a young well-built, man and could earn and live in comfort but he saw the unique opportunity available to him to learn from the Prophet of Allah (peace be upon him) - an opportunity of a lifetime." So he availed of that opportunity, sacrificing everything to attain it. He knew the value of his limited time with the Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) for he would be able to learn that which would benefit the rest of the Ummah for generations to come."

Abu Hurairah (Allah's blessings be on him) was a very pious and devoted person. His house was like a mosque at night. He would stay up for a third of the night, his wife for another third and his servant for another third. In this way, no hour of the night was spent without prayers in his house.

Caliph Umar (Radiallahu anhu) appointed him as the governor of Bahrain. And later during the reign of Marwaan he served as the governor of Madinah. It was then that he married Bussra bint Ghazwan (sister of Utba bin Ghazwan, the Ameer of Basra) who was his employer some time back.

Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu) died in 59 AH, at the age of 78.

قال: ما الإحسان؟ قال: "أن تعبده الله وقلبه، فلن ترا هلالك، وإن لم تكن تراه، فإنها براك".

One day while the Prophet (ﷺ) was sitting in the company of some people, (The angel) Gabriel came and asked, "What is faith?" Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) replied, 'Faith is to believe in Allah, His angels, (the) meeting with Him, His Apostles, and to believe in Resurrection." Then he further asked, "What is Islam?" Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) replied, "To worship Allah Alone and none else, to offer prayers perfectly to pay the compulsory charity (Zakat) and to observe fasts during the month of Ramadan." Then he further asked, "What is Ihsan (perfection)?" Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) replied, "To worship Allah as if you see Him, and if you cannot achieve this state of devotion then you must consider that He is looking at you." Then he further asked, "When will the Hour be established?" Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) replied, "The answerer has no better knowledge than the questioner. But I will inform you about its portents.
1. When a slave (lady) gives birth to her master.
2. When the shepherds of black camels start boasting and competing with others in the construction of higher buildings. And the Hour is one of five things which nobody knows except Allah.

The Prophet (ﷺ) then recited: "Verily, with Allah (Alone) is the knowledge of the Hour--." (31. 34) Then that man (Gabriel) left and the Prophet (ﷺ) asked his companions to call him back, but they could not see him. Then the Prophet (ﷺ) said, "That was Gabriel who came to teach the people their religion." Abu 'Abdullah said: He (the Prophet) considered all that as a part of faith.

He said: "The Angel came to me and said: 'O Muhammad, your Lord says: 'Will it not please you (to know) that no one will send salah upon you that I will send salah upon him tenfold, and no one will send salams upon you but I will send salams upon him tenfold?"
Some of the benefits of this Hadith

1. This hadith teaches us that every Muslim has to send blessings on prophet Muhammad peace be upon him.

"O Allah, let Your Blessings come upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, as you have blessed Ibraheem and his family. Truly, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious. Allah, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, as you have blessed Ibraheem and his family. Truly, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious."

(ALLAHUMMA SALLI ALA MUHAMMADIN WA ALA AALI MUHAMMADIN KAMAA SALLAITA ALA IBRAHEEMA WA ALA AALI IBRAHEEMA INNAKA HAMEEDUM MAJEED. ALLAHUMMA BAARIK ALA MUHAMMADIN WA ALA AALI MUHAMMADIN KAMAA BAARAKTA ALA IBRAHEEMA WA ALA AALI IBRAHEEMA INNAKA HAMEEDUM MAJEED)

"O Allah, let Your Blessings come upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, as you have blessed Ibraheem and his family. Truly, You are Praise worthy and Glorious. O Allah, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, as you have blessed Ibraheem and his family. Truly, You are Praise worthy and Glorious.

3. The blessings (salutations) which we send upon our prophet (peace be upon him) are conveyed to him by angles appointed by Allah.

4. The correct way of sending salutations (blessings) upon our Prophet (peace be upon him) is: "ASSALAAMU ALAIKA AYYUHANNABIYYU VA RAHMATULLAAHI VA BARAKAATUHU"

Peace, mercy and blessings of Allah be upon you o prophet (peace be upon him)
Narrate Aisha, Ummul Mu'minin (Radiallahu anha):

The Prophet (ﷺ) used his right hand for getting water for ablution and taking food, and his left hand for his evacuation and for anything repugnant.

Some of the benefits of this Hadith

1. Islam taught us to use right hand for all respectable, blessed (honorable) works.
2. While cleaning any dirt it is most appropriate and compulsory to carry it out with left hand.
3. It is mandatory to follow the foot steps of our Prophet (peace be upon him) in every deed which a believer does it for pleasing Allah.

“He who asks others to give to him in order to increase his own wealth, is akin to one who asks for live coals. He who wishes to have more, let him have it and he who wishes to have less, let him have it.” Related by Muslim.

Some of the benefits of this Hadith

1. Begging money for silly needs in all its forms is prohibited by our prophet (peace be up on him), this is also treated as a sin and can earn anger of Allah.

Mua'ada 'Adawiyya (Radiallahu anhu) reported 'A'isha (Radiallahu anha) as saying:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to observe four rak'ahs in the forenoon prayer and he sometimes observed more as Allah pleased.

I heard Humran bin Aban narrate to Abu Burda in this very mosque during the governorship of Bishr that 'Uthman bin Affan(Radiallahu anhu) said: The Messenger of Allah (ٴ عليه السلام) observed: He who completed ablution as Allah, the Exalted, enjoined upon him, his obligatory prayers would be explatious (for his minor sins that he would commit) during (the interval) between them. This hadith is transmitted by Ibn Mu'adh, and in the hadith narrated by Ghundar, the words" during the governorship of Bishr" are omitted and there is no mention of the obligatory prayers.

Some of the benefits of this Hadith

1. From this hadith we can deduce that minor sins only will be wiped off through performing prayers. For major sins one should have do true repentance.
2. One should perform wudu with utmost concentration and devotion towards it because it is also an important form of worship
3. Wudu is also a form of worship, sins can be wiped off through it, as we all know that performing salaat won’t be acceptable without wudu, so we should learn all basic things about wudu.

Narrated Abu Hurairah (Radiallahu anhu):

The Prophet (ﷺ) as saying: How good is the believers meal of dates shortly before dawn.

Some of the benefits of this Hadith

Abu Huraira reported (Radiallahu anhu) :

The Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: When the Imam says: "Allah listens to him who praises Him." you should say: "O Allah, our Lord for Thee is the praise." for if what anyone says synchronises with what the angels say, his past sins will be forgiven.

Observe fast when you see it (the new moon) and break fast when you see it (the new moon of Shawwal), but when (the actual position of the month is) concealed from you (on account of cloudy sky), then count thirty days.

Some of the benefits of this Hadith

1. There should not be any chance for doubt regarding the beginning and ending of the month of Ramadhan, if the weather is cloudy and one is unable to sight the Ramadan crescent moon then have to complete the 30th day of Shaabaan as it’s last day, likewise the same in ending of the month too for celebration eid al fitr, if on 29th of Ramadan weather is cloudy one can’t sight the crescent of next month, then one has to finish 30th day of Ramadan with fasting in it.
2. Do not start fasting of Ramadan before the actual beginning of the month, fasting starts only after making sure of sighting of crescent moon of Ramadhan.

Eventually, in Kufa Ali (Allah's blessings be on him) was wounded by Abdurrahman ibn Muljam, a khariji, as he was going to the morning prayer. He became a martyr as a result of this wound.
Ibn Muljam was caught by the people after he had struck Ali. Ali (Allah's blessings be on him) asked the Muslims to slay him if he died. At the same time of his death Ali (Allah's blessings be on him) called his sons and advised them to serve Islam and to be good with the Muslims. When somebody asked him should the Muslims take pledge of loyalty at the hands of his elder son, Hassan (Allah's blessings be on him), he replied, "I leave this decision to the Muslims." He also advised people not to kill any person other than the assassin to avenge him. He was sixty three years old at the time of his death.

About narrator:

Usamah Ibn Zaid (Allah's blessings be on him) was from the tribe of Kalb. His father was Zaid Ibn Haarithah bin Shurahbil bin Abduluzza the Prophet's (peace be upon him) servant, who preferred the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, over own his father, mother and kin. He was with him when the Prophet (peace be upon him), stood in front of a large group of Companions saying, "I let you bear witness that Zaid is my son, inheriting from me and I inheriting from him."

His name remained Zaid Ibn Muhammad (peace be upon him) until the practice of child adoption was abolished by the Qur'aan. Usamah (Radiallahu anhu) is his son. His mother was Umm Aiman.
It was God’s will that this child was borne after Islam began to forge a path. As one of the true sons of Islam, he (Allah's blessings be on him) was nurtured from his first days by Islam's pure nature without experiencing the murkiness of the pagan period. He grew up in a clean environment among Muslim parents who taught him Islam from his early age.

Sahaba had migrated from Makka to Madina. They had to leave all their money and property to save their lives. Muslims were given permission from Allah to migrate and so they migrated to Madinah. Usama (Radiallahu anhu) migrated to Madinah with his parents and from his early age he wanted to participate in the battles for Allah’s cause. Before the battle of Badr when Muslims were being prepared to attack a caravan belonging to the disbelievers, he bravely asked his father to participate. At that time he was ten years old. Of course, his father refused because of his age.

In the battle of Uhud, a child who was eleven years old entered the battle field carrying a sword taller than him. Everybody was amazed at that rare bravery and persuaded him to go back home with great difficulty. This child was again Usamah (Radiallahu anhu). He learned to fight with the sword, to fire arrows and all the necessary arts of war. He would sit with his father, who contributed throughout his life in all Islamic battles, and listen to all the details of the battle, the heroic deeds of the companions, how honorable it was to die for the cause of Allah and that would fill him with enthusiasm to participate. The Prophet’s (peace be upon him) love to him
On the day of the Conquest of Makkah, the Prophet's (Radiallahu anhu) Companion who was riding behind him on horseback was that dark-skinned, snub-nosed Usaamah Ibn Zaid (Radiallahu anhu). Among the most victorious days of Islam was the day of the Conquest of Makkah. On that day, on the Prophet's (peace be upon him) right and left were Bilaal and Usaamah (Allah's blessings be on them), two dark-skinned men; however Allah's word which they carried in their pure, virtuous hearts made them deserving of all kinds of merit and elevated position. And when our noble Prophet, (peace and blessings be upon him) entered the Kabah (The house of Allah) to pray only Usamah (Allah's blessings be on him) entered with him.

Usaamah Ibn Zaid (Allah's blessings be on him) has been called among the Prophet's (peace be upon him) Companions "The Beloved Son of the Beloved"

The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) died before the army set off towards its destination; however the Prophet (peace be upon him) had left his wise testament to his Companions: "Fulfill Usamah's commission. Fulfill Usamah's (Radiallahu anhu) commission."
Despite the new circumstances created by the Prophet's (peace be upon him) death, Abu Bakr As-siddiq, the first caliph, insisted upon fulfilling the Prophet's (peace be upon him) testament. Abu Bakr (Radiallahu anhu), commander of the believers, set out walking in complete humility beside Usamah (Allah's blessings be on him) who was mounted on his horse. When Usamah felt uncomfortable that he was riding and Abu Bakr (Radiallahu anhu) the caliph, was walking he said: “By Allah, you will ride and I will dismount”. Abu Bakr (Radiallahu anhu) said: “By Allah, you will not dismount, and by Allah I will not ride. It does not harm me to get dust on my feet in Allah cause for an hour” then he, the Caliph, turned to Usamah (Radiallahu anhu) and said: “would you consider supporting me with Umar and leaving him with me in Al-Madinah”. Usamah (Allah's blessings be on him) accepted. See how great this situation is. How humble the Caliph (Radiallahu anhu) is. Usamah’s (Radiallahu anhu) army set off to its destination; the caliph only requested Usamah (Radiallahu anhu) to allow ‘Umar (Radiallahu anhu) to stay behind to be with him in Al-Madiinah.

Usamah’s (Radiallahu anhu) army returned safely without any causalities so that sahaba said, "We’ve never seen a safer army than Usamah's (Radiallahu anhu) ."

Two years before the Prophet’s (peace be upon him) death, Usamah (Allah's blessings be on him) was sent by the Prophet (peace be upon him) to lead a detachment which was meeting some polytheists attacking Islam and its followers. It was the first time for Usamah (Allah's blessings be on him) to be appointed head of a detachment. He accomplished his duty successfully and victoriously. News of his victory preceded his arrival and the Prophet (peace be upon him), peace and blessings be upon him, was indeed glad.
In A.H. 54 Usamah (Allah's blessings be on him) longed to meet with Allah. He died after reaching seventy-five years of age. He was buried at ‘Al-baqi’ in Al-Madinah.

Abdullah bin Umar bin Al-Khattab (Radiallahu anhum), his mother was Zainab bint Maz`un(Radiallahu anha) and his maternal uncle was the great and venerable companion, Uthman bin Maz`un (Allah's blessings be on him). His father was the great and venerable companion and one of the rightly-guided Caliphs who was a shining example of fairness and a vigorous upholder of the truth, and he bears a high rank and outstanding virtues.
The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)said of him: if there were to be a Prophet(peace be upon him) after me, it would have been Umar bin Al-Khattab(Radiallahu anhu). And it is reported on the authority of Aishah the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: I see the devils among the jinn and mankind fleeing from Umar (Radiallahu anhu). His son, Abdullah (Radiallahu anhu) was born in the third year following the start of the Prophet’s (peace be upon him) mission.
When Umar bin Al-Khattab (Allah’s blessings be on him) pronounced the Shahadatan in the presence of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), the companions raised their voices glorifying Allah. But some of the companions advised him to keep his Islam a secret, he said: by Allah, I will proclaim my Islam as I used to proclaim my disbelief, bin Umar (Allah's blessings be on him) said that when Umar bin Al-Khattab (Allah's blessings be on him) embraced Islam, he asked: which of the people of Makkah is the best at spreading news? They said: Jamil bin Ma`mar Al- Jamhi. So Umar (Allah’s blessings be on him) went out and followed him and I was a young boy who understood everything that was said the he came to him and said: Oh, Jamil! Do you know that I have embraced Islam? By Allah, he did not reply to these words, but stood up and raced off and Omar followed behind him and I went with him, until he stood at the door of the Mosque and cried out: Oh, people of Quraish! Umar(Allah's blessings be on him) has apostatized ! He said: you have lied, but I have embraced Islam.

bin Umar (Radiallahu anhu) was a good soul, which was still upon the natural state(Fitrah) in which Allah created it and so it was ready to receive the new religion. He used to hear about Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) his truthfulness and his trustworthiness, and his soul was filled with wonder by the personality of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him), which no one mentioned except to say good things about it, so when his father embraced Islam , his young son felt that a heavy stone which had been blocked the way to his proclaiming his conversion to Islam had been remover and he embraced Islam while still at a young age and he became a good Muslim may Allah pleased with him and may He pleased him.
It is reported on the authority of Nafi' that Ibn 'Umar Utah used to follow the footsteps of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and pray in every place where he prayed, to the extent that the Prophet (peace be upon him) sat beneath a tree and Ibn 'Umar used to care for that tree and pour water over its roots so that it would not become dry. He did not only sit beneath the tree underneath which the Messenger (peace be upon him) of Allah used to sit, rather, he used to care for it by watering it.

Nafi' reported on the authority of Ibn 'Umar that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "If we left this door for the women" Nafi' said: "After that, Ibn 'Umar never entered by that door until the day he died.

The other Companions noticed Ibn 'Umar's imitation of the Messenger of Allah's (peace be upon him) actions, including 'Aishah, who said: "No one followed in the footsteps of the Prophet (peace be upon him) in more closely than Ibn 'Umar (Radiallahu anhu) did.

He did not change after the death of the Messenger (peace be upon him) of Allah, so much so that one of his contemporaries said in his supplication: "Oh, Allah! Keep 'Abdullah bin 'Umar (peace be upon him) alive for as long as I live, so that I can amulet: him, for I do not know of anyone else who adheres so closely to what the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) of and his Companions used to follow.

His Kindness and Generosity
Inb 'Umar (peace be upon him) upon was kind and generous and would not refuse any petitioner and he would distribute charity as one who did not fear poverty, seeking thereby the reward which is with Allah, as he preferred the life of the Hereafter over the life of this world. Nafi' said: "Anything of Inb 'Umar's (peace be upon him) property which pleased him, he would give away. Once, when he was travelling on his camel, he began to admire it and made it kneel down. Then he said: "Oh, Nafi'! Remove its saddle and tie it up. And he placed it among his camels. And Ayub bin wa'il said: "Abdullah (peace be upon him) came with ten thousand dirhams and he distributed them, then he sought feed for his camel worth one dirham on credit."

Inb 'Umar (peace be upon him) would go to the market even though he did not want to buy or sell anything and he would deliver salutations of peace to everyone he met. When he was asked about this, he said: "We only go out in order to greet the people with salutations of peace.

From a young age, 'Abdullah bin 'Umar (peace be upon him) use was keenly interested to fight the enemies of Allah, for he realized, in spite of his youth, he realized the high status accorded by Allah to those who strive in His Cause and those who are martyred. For this reason, he set out to fight while he was still not of adult age.

In the Battle of Badr, when the sahaba set out to fight the disbelievers, Inb 'Umar (Allah's blessings be on him) went with them, due to his keen desire to be a soldier in the army of prophet (peace be upon him). However, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) sent him back due to his young age, and he was at that time, no older than ten years. And when came the time for the Battle of Uhud, he set out desiring again to fight, but he was again sent back by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) due to his young age with others who had not yet reached puberty.
Ibn 'Umar (Radiallahu anhu) also took part in battles during the rule of the abubakr (Allah's blessings be on him) 'Umar bin Al-Khattab (Allah's blessings be on him).
